

DIGIUM END-USER PURCHASE AND LICENSE AGREEMENT FOR THE ASTERISK APPLIANCE 50

February, 2008

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. This Digium End-User Purchase and License Agreement (the "Agreement") is a legal agreement between Digium and the licensee, purchaser and end user respectively (hereinafter, "you", "You" or "your") of the Digium distribution media, embedded software and related documentation (the "Software"), Digium services ("Services"), and any Digium computer electronics ("Hardware") and related manuals (collectively the "Products"). By downloading or installing the Software or installing the Hardware, you agree to and accept the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If you do not accept, or are not authorized to accept the terms and conditions of this Agreement, then you should not install the Software or Hardware and should remove any installed Software and Hardware from your computer.

2. GRANT OF LICENSE. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and Exhibit B, Digium grants you a non-exclusive, non-sublicenseable, non-transferable license to use the Software for internal business purposes and not for resale, sublicense, leasing, or providing hosted services to third-parties. "Software" shall include any upgrades, updates, bug fixes or modified versions ("Upgrades") or backup copies of the Software supplied to you by Digium or an authorized reseller, provided you hold a valid license to the original Software and have paid any applicable fee for Upgrades. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Digium acknowledges that certain components of the Software are licensed for distribution under so-called "open source" software licenses ("Open Source Components"). Digium provides a list of these Open Source Components for the initially distributed version of the Software in Exhibit B, along with their respective licenses. To the extent the terms of the license applicable to an Open Source Component prohibit any of the restrictions in this Agreement with respect to such Open Source Component, such restrictions will not apply to such Open Source Component.

3. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS. Except for the limited license rights expressly granted in this Agreement, Digium reserves all rights in and to the Software and any modifications thereto, including title, ownership, trademark, copyright, patent, trade secret and any other rights and interests. You will own only the Hardware (exclusive of Software embedded in the Hardware) and the physical media on which the Software and associated documentation are reproduced and distributed. If you allow an existing Services plan to lapse, you may be required to pay retroactively annual fees for all Products from the date of the lapse in order to reinstate such Services. Products that are provided or sold as demo or evaluation units, or are marked with the legend "For Evaluation Only" or a similar notation, are not authorized for commercial business use in production or deployment, but are made available only for demonstration or evaluation purposes, and may not be resold or transferred to any third party without prior written permission from Digium.

4. EMERGENCY CALLS. You understand and acknowledge that the Products may be used to implement, supplement, or replace telephone systems and telecommunications services, and that in some cases, certain government regulations may apply to their implementation or use; and compliance with such regulations is your sole responsibility. You understand and acknowledge and that users of the system on which you install the Products may attempt to use that system to place emergency calls. You acknowledge and agree that: the Products must be properly configured for your system or application; that the nature of the Products and any networks they may operate upon allow many possible configurations; that such configuration may be beyond the scope of the documentation supplied with the Products; and that specialized experience and training may be required to properly configure the Products. You acknowledge and agree that it is your sole responsibility to ensure that the Products and associated networks and systems are implemented and configured such that emergency calls are properly handled, and that any system or application based on the Products complies with all applicable laws and regulations. You acknowledge and agree that telephone and telecommunications systems can be complex and must be installed, implemented, and configured by the appropriate technically qualified personnel, and that you or your authorized agents have the qualifications necessary to properly implement and configure the Products to handle emergency calls, if applicable. You further acknowledge and agree that it is your sole and ongoing responsibility to ensure the proper operation of any emergency calling system based on the Products, including, but not limited to: initially and regularly testing the operation of the Products, including testing the operation with emergency services; notifying and training all users of any system on which the Products are installed how to use the system for emergency calls; and notifying such users of any and all limitations of your configuration and implementations of the Products and any network or system the Products are used on or with. By using the Products under this Agreement, you explicitly release Digium from any warranty, duty, liability, or obligation to train you or any users of your system regarding the proper configuration, operation, or use of the Products or any system or network they are used in conjunction with on which it is installed; to ensure that your configuration, implementation, or use of the Products provides for the proper handling or routing of emergency calls; or to ensure that your use of the Products is in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations.

5.1 Limited Warranty - Software. Digium warrants that the Software will substantially conform to Digium's specifications as set forth in the applicable documentation, at and from the date of original retail purchase of the Software for a period of ninety days provided that the Software is properly installed and used as contemplated in its documentation. Digium's sole obligation and your sole remedy for a breach of the foregoing warranty shall be to replace the non-conforming Software with software substantially conforming to Digium's specifications or to refund fees as described below. Digium further warrants that the media on which Digium delivers the Software will be free of physical defects for a period of ninety days or will be replaced by Digium. Except as otherwise agreed by Digium in writing, the replacement Software is subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. If Digium determines in its sole discretion that a material non-conformance cannot be corrected, or that it is not practical to replace the nonconforming Software, the price paid by the original licensee for the Software will be refunded by Digium to you and the license grant automatically terminated, in which case you will promptly return to Digium or destroy the Software and any copies in your possession.

5.2 Limited Warranty - Hardware. Digium warrants that the Hardware will be free from material defects in workmanship and materials from the date of original purchase by you for a period of one (1) year. Digium's sole obligation shall be to repair or replace the defective Hardware during the warranty period at no charge to you or to refund as described below. Such repair or replacement will be performed by Digium or its authorized representative. Digium may in its sole discretion replace the defective Hardware (or any part thereof) with a reconditioned product determined by Digium as materially equivalent or better than the defective Hardware. Repaired or replacement Hardware continues tolling the original warranty period from the date of original retail purchase.

5.3 Limited Warranty – Services. Digium warrants it will perform Services in a manner consistent with reasonably applicable industry standards. As your sole remedy and Digium's sole liability for breach of the foregoing warranty, Digium will re-perform or remedy at no charge to you any non-conforming performance reported by you within ten days of completion. Digium shall include technical support for the Products in accordance with the policies, terms and conditions set forth on the Digium web site for the Products you purchase. You may elect to renew your support from Digium at Digium's then current rates unless such Products and associated Services are discontinued in Digium's sole discretion.

5.4 Warranty Disclaimers. The limited warranties provided by Digium do not cover (i) Products that have been subjected to misuse, tampering, modification, experimentation, alteration, negligence, faulty installation; (ii) Products with the model or serial number altered, tampered with, or removed; (iii) Initial installation, installation and removal of the Product for repair, and shipping costs; (iv) Configuration of the Product; (v) Products that are provided or sold as demo or evaluation units, or are marked with the legend "For Evaluation Only" or a similar notation; (vi) Damage that occurs in shipment due to act of God, failures due to power surge, and cosmetic damage; (vii) Any hardware, software, firmware or other materials or services provided by anyone other than Digium; or (viii) Repair by anyone other than Digium or Digium's authorized representative. Unless under a current Services contract with Digium, you shall not upgrade or update Product using software of any origin except commercial versions of the Software released to you by Digium or its authorized distributors from time to time. the product is provided without any implied warranties of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, any implied warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement. Except as expressly covered under the limited warranty provided herein, the entire risk as to the quality, selection and performance of the Product is yours.

6. RETURN MATERIAL AUTHORIZATION. If returning a Product under warranty, you must include with the Product a written description of the Hardware defect or Software nonconformance in sufficient detail to allow Digium to confirm such determination. Prior to returning a Product under warranty to Digium, the original purchaser must obtain a Return Material Authorization ("RMA") in accordance with the Digium policy in effect at the time as published on the Digium web site. You must package the warranted Product in the original shipping package to ensure that it will not be damaged in transit, with the RMA number prominently marked on the outside of the package. No manuals or accessories should be returned to Digium, and Digium will only refund or replace the defective portion of the Product, but will not ship back any other material. Digium will ship repaired or replaced Products to you via UPS Ground or any common carrier selected by Digium, with shipping charges prepaid. You may request and prepay expedited shipping. Digium has no responsibility for packages that are lost in transit to Digium. Digium will not be obligated to accept physical return of any Software.

7. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Digium is not liable under any contract, negligence, strict liability or other legal or equitable theory for any loss of use of the Products, inconvenience or indirect damages of any character, whether special, incidental or consequential (including, but not limited to, loss of revenue or profit, work stoppage, computer failure or malfunction, failure of connected equipment or programs, loss of information or data or loss of goodwill) resulting from the use of the Products, relating to warranty service, or arising out of any breach of this Agreement, even if Digium has been advised of the possibility of such damages. The sole remedy for a breach of the foregoing limited warranty is repair, replacement or refund of the defective or non-conforming product. The maximum liability of Digium under this Agreement is limited to the purchase price of the applicable Products. The foregoing express written warranties and remedies are exclusive and in lieu of any other warranties or remedies, express, implied or statutory.

8. PROPRIETARY WORKS. The Products contain trademarks, trade secrets and/or copyrighted materials of Digium or its suppliers.

8.1 You agree not to reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the Software, except to the extent such restriction is expressly prohibited by applicable law. You shall not disclose or make available such trade secrets or copyrighted material in any form to any third party nor remove any trademark notices, copyright notices, or licensing terms from the Software or any components therein.

8.2 You will not, without Digium written consent, use the name, trademarks, trade names or logos of Digium, or the name of any product or service of Digium, in any manner. If Digium grants you a right to use the aforementioned, you will do so only in strict compliance with Digium trademark policies.

8.3 You agree not to fork any version of the components of Software licensed to you by Digium or promote or contribute to any fork of the components of Software licensed to you by Digium. For purposes of this Agreement, "fork" means a royalty free GNU General Purpose License ("GPL") or GPL-compatible distribution of the Software that is independent of the Digium-maintained Software code base.

9. TERMINATION. This Agreement shall terminate upon either destruction of the Products or return of the Products by you to Digium. In the event of a breach of the scope of use permitted by the grant in Section 2, or if you do not comply with other materials terms and conditions of this Agreement, Digium shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement, in which case you must promptly destroy or return all Products to Digium. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of Sections 5.4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. EXPORT RESTRICTION. You acknowledge that the Software, with the possible exception of certain third-party components, is of U.S. origin. You agree to comply with applicable domestic and international laws that apply to the Software, including the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and other limitations issued by U.S. and foreign governments.

11. TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT. This Agreement and the rights and obligations under it are not assignable by you without the prior written approval of Digium, voluntarily or by operation of law. Any attempt by you to assign this Agreement without such approval shall be void. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of Digium. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may move the Software to different internal computers to the extent consistent with the scope of license you have purchased to the Software.

12. U.S. GOVERNMENT USERS. The Software and documentation qualify as “commercial items” as defined at 48 C.F.R. 2.101 and 48 C.F.R. 12.212. All Government users acquire the Software and documentation with only those rights herein that apply to non-governmental customers of Digium.

13. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION. This Agreement is to be construed in accordance with and governed by laws of the State of Alabama, excluding its conflict of law provisions. Digium and you agree to submit to the personal and exclusive jurisdiction of, and agree that venue is proper in, the Alabama State or Federal Courts located in the County of Jefferson, Alabama, for any such legal action or proceeding. The United Nations Convention on International Sale of Goods, the application of which is expressly excluded, does not govern this Agreement.

14. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement and Exhibit B constitute the entire understanding between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior writings, negotiations or understandings with respect thereto. The provisions of this Agreement shall take precedence over any conflicting terms in any subsequent purchase order, documentation or collateral. The parties agree that this Agreement may be executed electronically and that electronic copies of this Agreement shall be binding upon the parties.

EXHIBIT B – OPEN SOURCE COMPONENTS

1. OPEN SOURCE LICENSES. Digium acknowledges that the components of Software listed in this Exhibit are licensed for distribution under so-called “open source” distribution licenses, and includes the licenses for those components in compliance with the license terms.

You may obtain distribution media containing the source code for these components from Digium by contacting Digium at:

Postal Service:

Digium, Inc.
Sales Department
445 Jan Davis Drive NW
Huntsville, AL 35806

Electronic mail:

sales@digium.com

Via either means, you may order product code 8AA50GPLCD, which has a unit cost of US$1.00, and will be shipped to you after payment of shipping handling charges (US$20.00 for United States destinations and US$50.00 for all other destinations). Orders placed via electronic mail must be paid via a Digium-accepted credit card; orders via postal service can be paid either via credit card or a check drawn on a United States bank.

2. GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE VERSION 2 COMPONENTS. The following components are licensed under version 2 of the GNU General Public License (included as Exhibit B.1).

Linux® kernel	libnetold
ext2fs	uuid
libipq	libiptc
busybox	gdbserver
e2fsck	mke2fs
iwconfig	inetd
ssmtp	dnsmasq
dhcpcd	version

GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE

Version 2, June 1991

Copyright (C) 1989, 1991 Free Software Foundation, Inc.
59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA

Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed.

Preamble

The licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--to make sure the software is free for all its users. This General Public License applies to most of the Free Software Foundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library General Public License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too.

When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things.

To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.

For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights.

We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the software.

Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original authors' reputations.

Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.

The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow.

GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION

0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".

Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program (independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.

1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program.

You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.

2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:

a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change.

b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that in whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License.

c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively when run, you must cause it, when started running for such interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on the Program is not required to print an announcement.)

These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.

Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or collective works based on the Program.

In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under the scope of this License.

3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:

a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,

b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three years, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,

c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you received the program in object code or executable form with such an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)

The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a special exception, the source code distributed need not include anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies the executable.

If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place counts as distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code.

4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance.

5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying the Program or works based on it.

6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on the Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License.

7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patent infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely from distribution of the Program.

If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances.

It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the integrity of the free software distribution system, which is implemented by public license practices. Many people have made generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed through that system in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice.

This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to be a consequence of the rest of this License.

8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Program under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License.

9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns.

Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation.

10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free programs whose distribution conditions are different, write to the author to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.

NO WARRANTY

11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR OR CORRECTION.

12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

END OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS

How to Apply These Terms to Your New Programs

If you develop a new program, and you want it to be of the greatest possible use to the public, the best way to achieve this is to make it free software which everyone can redistribute and change under these terms.

To do so, attach the following notices to the program. It is safest to attach them to the start of each source file to most effectively convey the exclusion of warranty; and each file should have at least the "copyright" line and a pointer to where the full notice is found.

<one line to give the program's name and a brief idea of what it does.>

Copyright (C) 19yy <name of author>

This program is free software; you can redistribute it and/or modify it under the terms of the GNU General Public License as published by the Free Software Foundation; either version 2 of the License, or (at your option) any later version.

This program is distributed in the hope that it will be useful, but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY; without even the implied warranty of MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. See the GNU General Public License for more details.

You should have received a copy of the GNU General Public License along with this program; if not, write to the Free Software
Foundation, Inc., 59 Temple Place, Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307 USA

Also add information on how to contact you by electronic and paper mail.
If the program is interactive, make it output a short notice like this when it starts in an interactive mode:

Gnomovision version 69, Copyright (C) 19yy name of author
Gnomovision comes with ABSOLUTELY NO WARRANTY; for details type `show w'.
This is free software, and you are welcome to redistribute it under certain conditions; type `show c' for details.

The hypothetical commands `show w' and `show c' should show the appropriate parts of the General Public License. Of course, the commands you use may be called something other than `show w' and `show c'; they could even be mouse-clicks or menu items--whatever suits your program.

You should also get your employer (if you work as a programmer) or your school, if any, to sign a "copyright disclaimer" for the program, if necessary. Here is a sample; alter the names:

Yoyodyne, Inc., hereby disclaims all copyright interest in the program `Gnomovision' (which makes passes at compilers) written by James Hacker.

<signature of Ty Coon>, 1 April 1989

Ty Coon, President of Vice

This General Public License does not permit incorporating your program into proprietary programs. If your program is a subroutine library, you may consider it more useful to permit linking proprietary applications with the library. If this is what you want to do, use the GNU Library General Public License instead of this License.

EXHIBIT B.3 - dropbear License

Dropbear contains a number of components from different sources, hence there are a few licenses and authors involved. All licenses are fairly non-restrictive.

The majority of code is written by Matt Johnston, under the license below.

Portions of the client-mode work are (c) 2004 Mihnea Stoenescu, under the same license:

Copyright (c) 2002-2004 Matt Johnston
Portions copyright (c) 2004 Mihnea Stoenescu
All rights reserved.

Permission is hereby granted, free of charge, to any person obtaining a copy of this software and associated documentation files (the "Software"), to deal in the Software without restriction, including without limitation the rights to use, copy, modify, merge, publish, distribute, sublicense, and/or sell copies of the Software, and to permit persons to whom the Software is furnished to do so, subject to the following conditions:

EXHIBIT B.4 - OpenSSL License

The OpenSSL toolkit stays under a dual license, i.e. both the conditions of the OpenSSL License and the original SSLeay license apply to the toolkit. See below for the actual license texts. Actually both licenses are BSD-style Open Source licenses. In case of any license issues related to OpenSSL please contact openssl-core@openssl.org.
